

*The Honor of Your Presence is Requested by the Town of Abington for the Ceremony to Dedicate our Gold Star Street Signs
In Honor of Abington's War Dead*

Date: Sunday, May 22, 2016

Time: 3:00pm

Place: In front of Abington's War Memorial

Nearest Address: 1027 Washington Street, Abington

Abington's War Memorial Committee invites and encourages you to attend a ceremony to dedicate new street signs in honor of Abington's Killed In Action. This ceremony will honor all those from Abington who have died in defense of our freedom as we unveil new street signs created in their memory. A collation will follow the ceremony inside the American Legion Building. We hope you will plan to attend this important ceremony.

If you have any questions or if you know of any family members of the people on our town's Honor Roll, please contact Kristy Coburn at 781-424-4680 or kristy61274@msn.com. Thank you.

Abington's Honor Roll

World War I

Edgar D. Bascom
Chester W. Belcher*
Walter W. Coleman*
Charles Cook*
Lloyd Crossman
Lewis V. Dorsey
Robert B. English*
George H. Gillespie
Henry C. Hurst*
John J. Mahoney
Joseph D. Martin
Charles E. Murphy
Charles S. Myers
Myron F. Steward
Harold L. Taylor
Shirley S. Thayer
George L. Whorf*

World War II

Charles H. Bellows, Jr.
Wendell E. Chamberlin
Lloyd R. Clapp
John Colburn
George W. Coleman
Edmund G. Crossley
Elton E. Ekstrom
George S. Forsyth

Roy E. Hjelm
Wellington Jamieson
John R. Keeley
Clifford Kimber
Richard L. McCue
Harold R. McGeogh
John F. Monahan*
Harold R. Olson
John Rice
Frank O. Warner, Jr.

Vietnam

Dennis K. Adley
Peter B. Christianson
Richard F. Gliniewicz
Glenn R. Gordon
Ralph G. Hamlin, Jr.
Ernest H. Laidler
Richard A. Fitts

Afghanistan

Daniel M. Vasselian

*Street not yet created.

More information needed before sign can be completed.